Crimes in Domacria are not automatically considered worse if they take place on religious ground. However, this would likely be classified as a hate crime. Therefore, if they didn't kill anyone, they would be placed in a secure psychiatric ward and forced to undergo extensive therapy, medication, and treatment for their violent behavior for rehabilitation. Upon successful completion of this, they would likely be federally monitored and restricted for many, many years to come, including but not limited to a mandatory, semi-permanent government tracking device injected into their neck.

If they managed to kill anyone, they would, if convicted, be executed via cattle bolt inside a state execution chamber.

What is your nation's punishment for: assisting a suicide?

Edit: Ninja'd, but mine is open for anyone who wants it.

Colossal modern island nation in the North Atlantic. Ruled by a compassionate yet slightly-unhinged king, with a very isolationist yet empathetic populace. Notable characteristics: terrifyingly mighty air force and navy, world famous cars, legendary blend of wildlife.

Flag created by the legendary Almonaster Nuevo.

NS stats are canon except for population; factbook started. Some things are my RL views, some things are not. If curious, feel free to telegram.

Execution by public hanging, or life in prison, only that specific crime gets you those punishments, I mean, the country fought over communism less than a month ago.

Inappropriate videos of children.

Depends on the nature of it. Plain textbook fascism is protected, but antisemitism or calling for harm on another group of people could get you anything from a fine and confiscation of said display, to jail/labor time depending on the severity.

If anyone is killed directly as a result, all murder is considered a capital crime, but that would require it to be as strong as putting out a hit on an individual or group, and would be a very specific/unique situation and would require a lot of very damning evidence to prove it would not have happened otherwise.

Car theft

Grand Larceny, theft of conveyance -- Six months hard labor, fined 6th months wages, pay for any damage to vehicle, plus one months wage deducted for every km driven without permission, X2 standard pay for wear and tear on vehicle, plus pain and suffering for the inconvenience (up to six months average mean wage). If theft of vehicle leads to loss of life or limb, then death penalty is considered instead.

Not necessarily a crime, but person (or person's parents if a minor) may be liable for the damages and cost of repair.

Stealing a giraffe (our your universe's analog) from the local zoo and driving around town with its head sticking out your vehicle window for the fun of seeing other people's reaction?
