If men were angels, no government would be necessary. If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary. In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed; and the next place, oblige it to control itself.

It has been nigh 104 years since the last of the foreign invaders were driven from our shores. For as long as one might remember we had been subject to ungodly powers beyond the horizon, but no longer! Now we have won our freedom and with this we shall shape our own wyrd. With sword, pen and touch in hand, ye shall be the forgers of a new age. Hear me, Theden! To arms, for a brighter afterhood!
