Even though Hitler himself died before he could expand on his ideology in any important way, it didn't stop some morons in Greece, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Romania, Poland, and Portugal from putting a NSDAP-themed fascist government in charge of their countries.

Tensions heightened due to the 'Red Scare'. After all, Trotsky was infamous for making-do his word that he would violently captivate all of Europe in the revolutionary embers Russia fell to not long ago. Fascists took opportunity by 'safeguarding' those old institutions.
