Hopefully by now you know why IV: Mandragora is one of my favorites for 2013.

I enjoy it, but I also think we all know what my general opinion on black metal is ☐

I think I may of liked the 40-song album more, but they're both good.

Yes, we know. ☐

I forget, was it Rose From The Dead or Doom in Bloom?

Wait, I just realized.

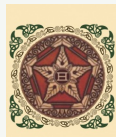

It's The Suicide Tree AND A Rose from the Dead in one.

So the only one I didn't listen to was part 3, then.

Uh...no Just that it isn't generally my thing. Depending the black metal, I don't even really think it is bad. It's just something I can't listen to all the time.

I was going to listen to another black metal album but I'm now distracted by my Christmas present.

Porcupine Tree-Sleep Together.

Windows Media Player put this album as Electronic.....Yeah, they have electronic in their songs, but they're far from electronic overall.

"Sing About Me, I'm Dying Of Thirst" - Kendrick Lamar

*Tired of running, tired of hunting
My own kind, but retiring nothing
Tires are steady screeching, the driver is rubbing
Hands on the wheel, who said we wasn't
Dying of thirst, dying of thirst, dying of thirst...*
