Luckily, the Federal Government managed to retreat to bunkers across the country

Did a substantial amount of citizens reach the bunkers as well?
(Not just the wealthy that bought their way in, but the middle and lower classes as well)

The bunkers I mention in my signature were only for Government officials, their families and limited amounts of staff and military police. However, the bunkers were able to keep communication networks up throughout the United States and use their long range radios to keep in contact with Military Bases throughout the country. A few towns also fell within Federal controlled zones and thus the Military was able to keep a steady stream of soldiers coming in whenever they needed reinforcements.

It's 2035, 62 years have passed since the world became a nuclear wasteland. The world became ruined through the efforts of Southern rebels in the United States. Who, after losing the 1972 Presidential Election to Senator Kennedy capture nuclear weapons and activate them. The hours after this see a nuclear exchange between the Soviets and the US over miscommunication. Luckily most of the Federal Government had managed to retreat to bunkers across the country. Decades later they have now returned to give America a second chance.
