Okay...never been impressed with Eminem, but this is pretty awesome.

Really? I thought that song sounded pretty bad, to be honest. I mean, the electronic parts were a bit interesting but the singing really got on my nerves.

I'm just listened to three gunshots and then a chorus of police sirens. Our whole side street had been flooded by sheriffs and police officers wearing bullet-proof vests and carrying shotguns. I think a homicide just happened. ☐

Geez. That's got to be scary.

I thought it was meh when I first heard the song. But when I looked at the lyrics...I was sold.

Same thing with "Berzerk". I hated the song when I first heard it, but the lyrics sold me.

That tends to happen a lot with me.

I don't know the lyrics so I can't judge that part ]

It could easily be perceived as arrogance. But basically he's trying to say, imo, that he's better than most people give him credit for, and is calling out other rappers who think they're the greatest when they're in fact mediocre (*cough* *cough* Lil Wayne *cough* *cough*).
Essentially, claiming his place and putting others in theirs.
The whole thing is comparable to Kendrick Lamar's controversial verse on Big Sean's "Control"; also could be perceived as arrogant but in reality is calling out the ones who think they're special.
It's an interesting story to follow. ]

Never heard that 1D song but now I'm curious. ]
