What's with all of these bands names with the F word in them seem to be good? Most of the time when I see names like the band is terrible.

They're definitely an interesting band.

I'm just impressed that I keep going through a bunch of bands and they're actually creative in some way or other. I did good at keeping the most interesting-sounding bands on my list to go through apparently.

So Last.FM told me these guys were post-rock. I can hear it in the first song I heard and maybe one album, but now I think about it Wikipedia calling it Electronica and Electronic Rock seems to fit much more for most of their stuff.

So I listened to the full album version of that Celldweller song and I think it was more annoying then the shortened version in the video....

Good song. It's a shame that fool's been shotout since he came back on the scene. Just raps about stupid shit now, raping moms and hating gays and stuff. Good lord.

Stafrænn Hákon-Second to None

Another band I like the singing quite a bit. Hopefully they end up being more exciting musically, too, like Aereogramme was.

Garbage. A song about love with about as much passion as a social services worker.

So uh, just saw that there is more of Stafrænn Hákon on Spotify then I thought so pushing them to low priority for now.

Really? I don't know much about him but I'd think he'd be better than that.

I don't even pay attention to lyrics half the time.

You be the judge.

Well I do, but then I'm somewhat of a rap fan, so that's natural for me, since lyrics are a big part of a rap song's merit.

World's End Girlfriend-Les Enfants du Paradis

That's also background-ish, but I think it has a great deal more merit than the last one. More jazz undertones.

Based on the part at the start I don't particularly think it is supposed to be taken literally, and I have to wonder what his actual opinions on everything he is singing about in that song is. Because I have no problem with people singing about dark stuff that might have nothing to do with what they actually believe, even if I might not like it.

I haven't really got into much rap stuff yet, but yeah, that definitely is more about the lyrics.

I think it is described as a post-rock song mixed with classical and electronic.
