Me, always; it's gotten to the point where I make much more coherent paragraphs relating to worldbuilding on a certain F7 thread than I do with actual factbooks.

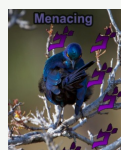

Motivation is one hell of an elusive thing.

On that note: Worlds where france got destroyed after the napoleonic wars instead of just getting reduced to pre-war borders would be interesting

First of all, disagree. Second of all, so far, just over six hours in, one and a half thousand people have voted on my proposal. I encourage you to try to see if you can do the same.

To break it to you frankly, it was as plain as a glass coffee table to see that the real reason you recycled the same topic was, knowing that even if it fails, you'd get to reserve the bragging right that one of your threads made it to quorum.

My favourite cliché is Munk getting offended over petty nonsense

I am interested in hearing what, exactly, you believe has supposedly caused offence here.
