After moving to the little hotel in El Paso, Texas, life becomes normal and he stops seeing and visualizing monsters when he goes to sleep and the time dilations suddenly stop, but however, he finds a nasty discovery. Under the hotel is a dark and secret dungeon which he stumbles upon, after he walks through the dungeon he sees Greg Abbott in chains and unconscious. Who's disappearance shook Texas.

#57681, either out of pity, horror or a mix of both, wakes the unconscious Greg Abbott from his stupor, reoving the piece of cloth covering his mouth. He then attempts to search for anything to free Abbott, but nothing of use were found in the dimly-lit chamber.

Greg Abbot then returns to his senses and remembers that there is a trapdoor somewhere in the dungeon, but it's blocked by a bunch of boxes. #57681 heeds his advice and begins to look around for an exit.

I know that doubleposting isn't the best thing to do, but ah well.

#57682 finds his car has been tampered with just one day before he could skip town, all the tires were slashed and the engine as well as fuel lines had been repeatedly beaten and hacked at, it dawned on him that someone or a group of people are after him, and now, they got him and his family cornered. With nowhere else to go, and noone else to help them, #57682 and his family begin stockpiling supplies and boarding up windows and entryways of their house.

I hate people who treat me like this.

Quality posts get responded by much lower quality posts, and people are defending the same people who make low-quality posts. What has this place become?
