Led Zeppelin - D'yer Mak'er

From: Houses of the Holy (1973)
Genre: Reggae rock

Led Zeppelin? Reggae (rock)? This is awesome. It's also where Sean Kingston came up with "Me Love"...Same melody and stuff...

*For all those who have sinned
This is hell on earth, burn until
The end the crown of thorns,
The ten commandments the writing is etched in stone
The non believers, playing with evil
This is a power they've never known
Fire and brimstone, eternal hell
God's wrath shall shake the earth
Pleasures of the flesh, a life of greed
You steal, you cheat, you lie*

Hurricanes - Hey Groupie

One of the albums I want on vinyl. It just feels wrong to have an album released in 1974 on CD when I have a vinyl player.

Hurricanes - I Will Stay

*I will stay by your side now and forever,
I will always only be in love with you.
Is it true when you say that you love me and is it true that I'm the one?*

Hurricanes - Get On

*Well, old Alabama, just a sweet Carolina
Just a-rockin' and rollin' may leave town
Got to be a scoogie, lay on my boogie
Let me hear you say you got my hole around
Got to be a scoogie, bing bong bang
Ain't got no rollin', ain't got no holdin'*

They were one song short of the album, the vocalist/drummer Remu just slapped all cool sounding English words on a paper and called it a day. 100% filler and their biggest hit ☐

That's what it said in Wikipedia. It's a form of metal with Viking/Norse imagery. In the article, it also states that song is kind of like a precursor.

Led Zeppelin - Misty Mountain Hop

From: Led Zeppelin IV (1971)

Genre: Hard rock
