I interpret that that banner is "Palatial", which is handed out for getting a very high corruption NS stat, and that the user thought the image was representative of their nation in some way, regardless of whether they use NS stats or not.

Beyond that, it could mean far too many things, which would require many more assumptions on my part than I am comfortable with making.

The Mukuro Clan is not representative of my, nor anyone else's views.

Just two sisters, an ancient ghost, and a supernatural army against the world. NS Stats not used; they are killed and reanimated instead.

Really, this is more of a rebellion than a nation.

Detailed factbooks? In this nation? You speak of dreams.

This nation uses NS stats. Imagine a moderately sized, modern, nonmagical jungle nation that is forever neutral. Previous posts regarding this nation's lore should be ignored. Those posts are more relevant to a new nation I'm "working" on.

If you haven't read our factbook; there reason we're as reactionary as we are, the reason we hate imperialism, a good number of other races, and even why we exist as a militant church, is because our homeland was colonized by xenophobic racists, who later went on to kill a highly respected member of our community. We don't even want to invade anyone. We just want our continent back.

Sorry for the long wait, but my new nation is still a slow work in progress. Completely new map than this one has.

Things to keep in mind:

- This isn't a single nation, but a whole planet full of many nations. I will usually reference a certain nation when posting.
- The flag being used is just to represent that it is a planet, it is not used at all in the 'canon', as there is no one flag for the planet Instead I chose to just use an image of the planet.
- I've referenced the prequels 124 times on F7.
