Records of some of the earliest human settlements on Stroulia date back to the late 3rd millenium BC, with fragments of human remains and local pottery being dated to at least the 21st century BC.

Casque Visa Requirements are categorised into 6 different requirements: A, B, C, D, E, and unrecognised. Category A and B are visa free. C and D means that tourism is possible, but requires a visa. Category E is pretty restrictive in terms of immigration, but touring is still possible. Unrecognised means they do not recognise a state, so I assume they are not allowed entry under their unofficial government.
