I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Woods of Ypres - I Was Buried At Mt. Pleasant Cemetery

This band is literally the best thing ever when you're feeling gloomy. The midsection is one of the most chillingly beautiful things I've ever heard.
