Fleshgod Apocalypse - Prologue

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Of Monsters And Men - Black Water.

Pro: Odin, axes, loot, raiding, the sea, pillaging, beards, mead.

Anti: Christians, cowards, Saxons, hot weather, a distinct lack of facial hair.

I'm not listening to a song per say, however I am listening to episode seven of Hello Internet as I recently learned I hadn't yet listened to it.

"The universe is probably littered with the one-planet graves of cultures which made the sensible economic decision that there's no good reason to go into space - each discovered, studied, and remembered by the ones who made the irrational decision."

I haven't listened to Hello Internet for a long while. Maybe I should catch up with the latest episode, and maybe check out Dear Hank and John too.

Aside from that: Pleasurekraft's remix of You're The One, by Sonny Fodera and Cajmere.
