Yeah, I didn't really think they would be your thing. And that vocal style isn't really a style I enjoy much most of the time, either. I don't even pay attention to the lyrics. I don't see the song as happy, either ☐

Also, been listening to that song. As far as black metal stuff goes, I'll probably definitely be leaning towards bands like these.

Middle Class Rut-Are You On Your Way?

The last like, minute is my favorite part...

I know it's not a 'happy' song but don't you get that awful feeling from it that the song isn't dark? It's not filled with hopeless despair.

repeats this sexy song

Raventale - The Fall of the Mortal Aspirations

It's perfect for me. Atmospheric black/doom is a lovely genre. ^.^

Not really in the mood for Middle Class Rut. They aren't even a band I can listen to very often.

All this talk about Fear of a Blank Planet in another thread is making me want to listen to Porcupine Tree.....and buy some damn albums which I don't have money for.

Porcupine Tree-Way Out Of Here

On a completely random and unimportant note I think the girl in this music video is cute.

I can't take the staring
The sympathy.

I don't like the questions "How do you feel?", "How's it going at school?", and "Do you want to talk about it?"

Way out.
Way out of here.
Fade out.
Fade out of here.

My favorite kind of lyrics.....Ones that are depressing and fit for my RP character quite well.

I feel like it is dark but not as full as hopeless despair as some songs I've heard....which some of the songs filled with hopeless despair aren't even dark ☐

Porcupine Tree-Fear of a Blank Planet

"Every person who works for the corporation-owned news media should be forced, Clockwork Orange style, to watch this music video after every columbine/sandy hook style mass shooting, so they'll stfu about guns and violence in video games/television. This song lays it out perfectly. There's a huge mental health problem that they only add to with their agenda-driven bullshit, and with the pills pushed on kids from an early age over things so fucking silly as them not being able to focus in school."

Good comment that sums up what this whole song and video is about.

It still sounds too light. It has a perverse happy vibe to it.

At comments: "In America, having a bad day at church is forgetting your bible. In Norway it's forgetting your lighter fluid."
For some reason I laughed harder than I should've.
