Despite the wide complaints of the new Muse album, there are a few songs I like. I wouldn't say it was my favorite Muse album, though.

It has a wide range of songs on it. As in, the type of song you are listening to changes a lot. I actually even like the one that has a Dubstep-ish sounding part played on guitar.

I've never really liked a full Muse album, though, so Muse isn't exactly entirely a favorite of mine. But there are some songs by them I consider to be pretty superb. I think as far as pop songs go, the Madness song is pretty good.

Don't rock the jukebox - Alan Jackson, though I doubt anyone else here listens to country.

One of the most delightfully adorable cover's I've ever listened to.

Vaguely a pessimist, certainly an absurdist, unironically an antinatalist.
