If men were angels, no government would be necessary. If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary. In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed; and the next place, oblige it to control itself.

"Ah...this is difficult. What is someone of my background and ideology to vote for in your nation? I'm relatively progressive, though by no means revolutionary, and I'm definitely not socialist but far from liberal either. Maybe if your social democratic party wasn't so socially conservative and was something like our Democratic Socialists....well, I'll choose your Radical Progressives and hope for the best!"

In California, I would likely support the Physiocratic Socialists and the Her Majesty the Empress's Most Loyal People's Governing Coalition. That said, the Her Majesty the Empress's Most Loyal People's Opposition is not very far behind at all, and I'm sure that if I was more informed on current affairs I might swing either way.

In Cascadia, I would support the Social Democrat Party and the Green Party.

My best bet would probably be the Green Party, followed by the Socialist Workers Party. There are plenty of other interesting minor parties, however, that I could see myself supporting in the right situations - out of those I would most likely back the Indigenous People's Organization.

An Oligarchic state where the ultra-rich govern a nation of entrepreneurs and innovators. Just as corrupt, hedonistic and materialistic as you think, despite its progressive policies and emphasis on quality of life.
