That December 7th, 1941 is SO inverted in their timeline! Unfortunately, it's played straight in ours.
Instead of claiming raw materials by force, Hatsunia preferred to acquire them through trade, since there was no period of an outright economic isolation, but a period of 'non-interference.' It was China that had been controlled by fascists at the time and was allied with the Nazi Germany. Hatsunia had joined the Allies in the year 1939 and had signed the Honolulu pact with the US on December 7, 1941 — a date which will not live in infamy!
