Driving without a license is punishable by up to 18 months in prison, and "freemen of the land" bullshit is seen by the Juansonian court system for what it is - bullshit.

Diving without license:

That'll get you a hefty warning, fine, and a day of punishment center time the first time around. For the second time, you'll get a heavier fine, warning, and a week in a punishment center. You'll be forced to wear an AUTOFORBID pin as well, which basically tells everybody "don't let this guy drive"! You can only get the pin removed when you've passed your driver's test. If you drive without a license after that, you'll get increasingly serious punishment center time.

Ninja'd edit for New Master:

You'll spend a lot of time in a punishment center before getting sent to a reeducation center to be remade into a law-abiding citizen.

Well for starters why on earth wouldn't you do that? I mean either way your family will probably die but still. Anywho, probably (depending on how they did it) 3-6 life sentences in Solitary, or death.

Attempting to protest at all is punishable by the death of your entire family (except for married men, women, and children) of your choosing (from a list). Attempting a Nazi Insurrection will earn that you are repealed of choosing and that your execution and your family's execution will happen on the next day.

The crime is murder, so that's a lengthy imprisonment and a brief public service.

Suicide is a horrible, horrible thing. It's terrible. We don't want that in our nation. And, y'know, I believe anyone who assists another person into suicide should at least be given interrogation, or if not at least a month in federal prison. Nasty, very nasty
