Yeah here's the entire subreddit summarized up:

- Rate my nation
- Rate my nation
- Rate my nation
- Someone trying to recruit for their region
- Rate my nation
- Rate my nation
- Someone asking for help with something relating to the game
- Rate my nation
- Rate my nation

You get the idea.

I don't even know why the subreddit exists.

Like it's unofficial, let's get that one thing clear, but what's the point when NationStates has, you know, its own active forum and shit?

Speaking of Reddit, I found NS through a post on Reddit. Someone was asking people where on the political compass their old nation was. I saw it and went: "Hey! A website where I can make a country! This looks interesting!"

I will say it was goddamn hilarious when Hataria showed up on the subreddit earlier this year.

Dude was banned like 9 years ago and he still thinks it was because of his autism and that the NS mods (and people paid by the mods) have engaged in a 9 year long campaign of harassment and cyberbullying against him as he tries to spread the 'truth' of how this website's moderation are just cyberbullies and trolls.

As someone who has autism it annoys me when people try to use that as some defense for their own shitty behavior.

Yes, it can lead to some social problems that need to be worked on that just can't be helped, but that doesn't excuse genuine shitty behavior.

When dipshits post some vile racist shit online and try and excuse it by saying that 'they're autistic'.

Look I'm no expert on autism, I'm just some online weirdo who strongly suspects she might have it and it was just never diagnosed (but I don't self-diagnose myself, I want to see a professional about it), but I'm fairly confident that 'being racist' is not part of it.

Ah, so they were spamming racist shit were they?

Well nothing stops someone with autism from getting that brain rot either sadly so I can but that happening.

Oh no this person wasn't (they did accuse me and another user of being paid in rubles tho) but I'm talking in general dipshits lol.

(The funny thing is IIRC the last time Hataria actually showed up on the forums proper, the mods revealed they were actually more lenient on him because of his autism, which is why he wasn't permabanned until 2013)

I hate it when autistic people try to gatekeep being racist.

OK so this is definitely going to be one of the most random clichés but posters mixing up basic forum terminology. The most common one you'll see is people saying 'forum' when they're talking about a thread, like they'll say 'Check out this forum I made' and link to one of their threads.

Yeah I just saw a post in the Your Nation's Fact of the Week thread where the poster congratulated the forum for its 10th anniversary.

And then they also referred to it as a thread too?

Weird.

Tbh most summies are just awful at making posts in general and refuse to learn from their mistakes, instead insisting that it's the highest quality response possible despite it being something as lacking as this-
