They put a citizen's ability (and requirement) to perform their duties above all else. This actually seems to be a cornerstone of their society in general.

That they live not one one island, but many of them.

"Believe you can and your halfway there." -Theodore Roosevelt

"Jesus was the first socialist, the first to seek a better life for mankind" -Mikhail Gorbachev.

I'm just a simple man trying to make a country on the internet. And yes I do not use NS stats.

The Democratic Socialist Republic of Karevka (DSRK) is supposed to be a stand-in Soviet Union, although with major differences like the allowance of private business (But the state is a partial owner) or the fact that they allow LGBT marriage. Kind of alternate history or alternate universe I guess.

They fought a civil war clearly very heavily modeled after the Russian civil war. In fact, at least two of the pictures from their history factbook are definitely from the Russian Civil War

We don't have any official languages on the national level. However, German is recognized as an official language in any provinces with a notable German-Speaking population (Such as Texas). In any case, my factbook links to an English-language recording of the song. It just happens that the song was originally written in German, and the title stuck, kinda like with L'Internationale.

Apparently, there is a singular, unified language called 'Bantu' in their canon (Based on my limited knowledge of the language, it seems like it might just be what they call Swahili)

Their environmentalist ideas also are reflected in their city design, with plenty of green space being made as well as methods to reduce urban sprawl. They also do not alter or level the terrain they build on, instead adapting their structures to the terrain/environment.

Their government has 5 councillors, Lord Tabris (International Presence), Lord Radonis (Internal Affairs), Lord Hock (Civil Administration), Lady Karan (Military Command), Lady Yenel (Scientific Advancement). All of which, minus the Internal Affairs, sound like the generic Civ 5 advisors
