everyone knows that quote, "I know not what weapons World War Three will be fought, but World War Four will be fought with sticks and stones," but in a way it's optimistic and inspiring because it suggests that even after destroying civilization and returning to the stone age we'll still be sufficiently globalized and bellicose to have another world war right then and there

Some bird chirping way off in the distance, the rustling of wind in the trees, and the click-clacking of my fingers hitting the letters on a keyboard. And no, I'm not outside. I'm hearing all of this stuff, minus, my keyboard, from outside my window.
