samotke4, which i think, might be some wierd thing i did myself.

followed by

ride the chill wave, by dj zimmerman (who seems to be unrelated to the more well known singer composer of the same mundane name, that is so not widely known, and who's gender i am also somewhat less certain of, if any of that makes sense, as it will to some and not to many others)

followed by

erratic's, completely wonderful "thousand year solo" (a beautiful utau, for those who know what that is) (it is also considerably less then a thousand years long, unless you happen to be traveling forward in a tardis while listening to it)

everyone knows that quote, "I know not what weapons World War Three will be fought, but World War Four will be fought with sticks and stones," but in a way it's optimistic and inspiring because it suggests that even after destroying civilization and returning to the stone age we'll still be sufficiently globalized and bellicose to have another world war right then and there
