Very well known! Their creativity and artstyle knows no bounds, and I'm glad to see them around again as always.

(That's assuming you're Wuchu, of course. If not, then well, still probably well known, just someone I can't pinpoint.)

It is pretty obvious Valentine Z is known almost everywhere they could be. Except in RL, just in NS forums and stuff

Valentine Z is probably one of the most famous NS users even outside of forums. They ran for General Secretary, if that what it was called and got a lot of votes at that. So yeah, extremely well known.

Ninja'd hold up

I would say AN is pretty well known of forums and they stand out for being a corporation. I've seen them a lot on forums.

They are only starting to get well known, but the unique flag helps

Not very well known at the moment, but they are definitely climbing.

Inactivity means I'm back down to 180 though. The Big Owl-loving one's new main nation. NSG, F7 and II are equally bad, I just happen to post in all of them. Having the default flag makes any nation instantly unknown because they'll just blend-in with any other nations that use the default flag, so 'not very known'.

Quite well known. I wouldn't say I really know Gandoor, yet I certainly know of them. They're a staple of Forum 7.

I recall talking with them several times in II, but I haven't seen them in F7 yet. Barely known.
