Actually that really pisses me off. That's just game developers trying to get some extra credit and it's really kinda disgusting.

So you'd rather they just grab the boring ass shit instead? I'm not going to deny they don't do it for extra credit, but I much prefer it over throwing something like Lady Gaga in a trailer for the sake of the latest popular hit. At least sometimes they give attention to something that deserves attention.

No, you're all wrong. I'd rather they'd use the game's ACTUAL SOUNDTRACK than some third party bullshit.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

So would I. But if they are GOING to use a song, I think they should use something more interesting instead of something just because it is the latest hit.
