They are still a fairly new nation around F7, ~~which may explain why they just said that NSAR is just "decently known"~~, but they seem to be very active and interested in participating in threads. So far, I have to say that they are fairly unknown, but if they keep participating as much as they are currently doing, they will surely become a very known name around here.

I've seen them around often when I go to F7 but I don't recall a time we've ever interacted in the games. I'd say they're well known, ig.

Almost ubiquitously known across the entire NS userbase, as they're pretty much inescapable especially when it comes to F7. Not that you'd want to escape them, since I see no reason why you wouldn't enjoy their posts and company. Extremely well known, though with their level of activity and the years they've been a user, you'd expect that.

Known for frequently posting on this thread that asks people to rate how well known they are. Else, fairly well-known on F7, though their renown is starting to fade because they've recently just been mostly posting in one (this) thread. As for outside F7, I don't know.

Have been around for very frequently and has a great deal of Factbooks along with good interactions towards everyone. Generally a pleasant person, good friend. :3 I wish we can interact more ICly but that's on me because I have been away for a while.. ^^;

AN: First time seeing them around, a relatively small reputation and popularity. May not be around for long.

I think I might've seen Boldonia a bit before my absence, but they seem to be known in the forums, but not too much in a specific forum, though they mostly dabble in F7 I assume. Decently known, especially if you've been around here lately, not too much overall though

As a recently ex-unactive user, I have only returned for a few days to the forums. I've seen you here and there across a lot of places in F7, so I assume you are moderately well known, at least in F7. Your flag's hard to forget! It's quite memorable

I have never seen AN before, so I can't say much about them. I doubt they are well known, and in fact, they are probably very unknown.
