Ah, the nostalgia. Need for Speed Hot Pursuit 2 was definitely the best NFS game ever released, and I have so many fond memories of it.

Stuck Inside of Mobile with the Memphis blues again - Bob Dylan

I don't understand how to capitalize song titles.

This song reminds me of why I dig ambient music so much sometimes. Even I can only listen to stuff this mellow (Though this is upbeat compared to some ambient stuff I know, to be honest) so often, and I find myself leaning towards more mellow forms of music more often.

Xasthur - Suicide in Dark Serenity

For some reason, this song makes me picture a really big, dark cave with a gargantuan ravine in the middle, leading down to a lake.

Your description makes me think of the video game Dear Esther, which is very short but has a beautifully constructed world.

Honestly, I think it is the first time that a game world itself made me teary-eyed. It was amazing.

Some pictures of it.

I should replay that game now that my dad has a flatscreen and I have glasses so I can actually see properly.

I love the music in the game, as well.
