Julia Holter is great.

But Chelsea Wolfe and Julia Holter, who both began their careers around the same time, and have released an album every year since then (Julia Holter having 3, Chelsea Wolfe having 4) are pretty damn good, and they both seem kind of...dark, in some ways.

Arcade Fire-We Used to Wait

I knew I remembered another song off of this album, but I couldn't remember the name. THAT was this song. I know this song really well, again, from the radio, I believe.

First album I've listened to by Julia Holter, really like Loud City Songs, haven't heard Chelsea Wolfe though.
I do really like Julianna Barwick, might check more of Julia and check out Chelsea.

Random note:
Geez, you respond fast.

On the subject of the discussion:
I've had Last.fm recommend me Julianna Barwick, so I should listen to her too.

The last ones a very disorienting guitar song but I love it for some reason.
