In a world where the Spartacists won in 1919 and Trotsky achieved his world revolution, Russia's minority dumping ground in the Far East is undergoing an internal revolution. Led by a sly artist-premier and his technocratic posse, surrounded by a salacious secretive Civil Servants' society, factionalist scheming, and (literal) backstabbing.

If men were angels, no government would be necessary. If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary. In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed; and the next place, oblige it to control itself.
