Tomorrow's another day

Today is gonna be the day that they're gonna throw it back to you
And by now, you should've somehow realised what you gotta do
I don't believe that anybody feels the way I do about you now
And backbeat, the word is on the street that the fire in your heart is out
I'm sure you've heard it all before, but you never really had a doubt
I don't believe that anybody feels the way I do about you now
And all the roads we have to walk are winding
And all the lights that lead us there are blinding
There are many things that I would like to say to you, but I don't know how Because maybe
You're gonna be the one that saves me
And after all
You're my wonderwall

It is 1881, and America still dreams of its "manifest destiny" to rule the continent. The strange pilgrims claiming a kingdom in the Great Basin apparently have other ideas.
