Rather than holding the capital in Washington D.C, New York, Mexico City or Chicago, or any city with any kind of historical importance to either the US or Mexico, their capital is an entirely new city named 'Fort Zapata'.

The government of Hinodia runs under 3 branches. These include:
Federal (which is responsible for printing money, defence, foreign affairs, funding local governments etc),
Provincial (responsible for managing their own resources, passing laws that affect them, public works etc), and the Prefectural Level (responsible for maintaining schools, court of order, motorways, and upholding the federal mandate etc).
