Godulars are post-humans who became assimilated by the remnant of an advanced, ancient, and tyrannical alien empire after they came across abandoned technology owned by a rogue faction of said empire. They don't own a lot of star systems, but make up for that by utilizing all that space between the stars, as well as extracting resources from parallel universes.

Califbala is an Islamic Caliphate with about 5 billion people that spans North + East Africa, West + Central + South + Southeast Asia, and parts of Europe. The government is based on Islamic law but is also a semi-democratic technocracy. This country was created after the rise of a Pan-Islamist movement in the early 21st century, mostly through peaceful methods, although some branches of the movement were extremist. There are also more socially progressive elements in the government.

The Great Intergalactic Empire actually embraces the black market, as it allows the government to gain cheap access to components and other stuff of the sorts. However, the Government intervenes when it realizes that firearms of any sort are being produced/sold/bought in the black market.

Metra was a city-state on an ice planet that was suddenly cut off from interstellar travel and communication capabilities in 2556. Over hundreds of years, it fought a rival city-state, but it took thousands of years for it to rediscover faster-than-light travel. Now it owns 8 star systems with 4 habitable planets.

Music is central to Hatsunese culture. Early music in Hatsunia came from the imperial court and religious officials, but theatrical dance and drama quickly evolved. Hatsune Miku is a historical figure from Hatsunese history that was thought to have overseen the foundation of the nation. Her voice received an official voice by Crypton Future Media using the Vocaloid software engine by Yamaha Corporation. It was based on samples from voice actress Saki Fujita. She is considered a cultural icon, but she is interpreted in many different ways today and her voice can be used by people all over the world.

In the 2030 Premier elections, Ivan Petrov, of the National Party, won the election with 1,032,889,551 votes - which is over 236 million more votes than the runner up, Ariadna Popov of the SDP.

Kabzeel, meaning "God's Gathering" in hebrew, is a federal, dominant-party, socialist(non-marxist)constitutional monarchy with a rich Jewish heritage dating back to it's creation in 845 CE. Today, it spans almost the entirety of Eastern Europe and is the largest predominately Jewish and female-led state in the world as it follows the doctrine of "Royal Socialism", a paternalistic conservative ideology with an emphasis on socialization, social ownership, and conservative feminism. Its relationship with Israel is noticeably rocky, but this is due to the ongoing complications between Kabzeelian and Israeli Zionism.

While their society is highly progressive in certain areas (such as foreign immigration), there exist certain areas of society in which they remain rather backwards, such as LGBT rights. This may stem, in part, from the highly religious (97%) population.
