Probably like twenty years in prison for assault and murder, but no charges for the cheese flag part. What is wrong with this threat though.

(Whoops looks like I was late. Okay then)

A fine or prison time depending on what the forgery was used to do.

Get slapped by Her Majesty's Imperial Morality Constabulary with a warrant of arrest for public indecency with the intent to provoke lese-majeste—the highest offense ever known to Angvar that carries the worst form of death penalty that even makes hell itself look like paradise.

Battery on an officer of Her Majesty's Imperial Morality Constabulary, or YN's equivalent of a morality police?

There is no such morality police in Scytharum. Instead two separate cases, one in Scytharum with standard police officers and one in the German Empire with its morality police, will be discussed. (I know this is supposed to be only for "Your Nation", but I also wanted to compare Scytharum's law on the matter to Germany's.)

In Scytharum, battery against a police officer is punishable by overnight jailtime and psychological analysis.

In the German Empire, battery against an officer of the Moralische Vollstrecker (MVs) results in internment for a certain period of time, depending on the severity, as well as a "Moralische Prüfung" to tell the citizen acceptable behavior.

AAN:

It would depend on how large the donation is. All religious institutions receive government investments to ensure that members are not required to donate to keep the institution afloat. Donations worth more than a thousand USD per year are strictly forbidden.

It would also depend on whether the non-state church is following the state-based rules/legal requirements.

Non-state churches must uphold the following:

- Promotion of any form of violence, harm, sacrifice, marriage, celibacy, othering (racism, xenophobia, anti-LGBTQIA+, etc.), or requiring members to mistreat "apostates" is forbidden.
- Use of or benefitting from any animal or slave labour or animal-derived products is forbidden.
- Appropriate handling of all CSA cases, including full transparency.
- Appropriate handling of all financials, including full transparency.

For a Non-State church to break any of the aforementioned rules, would eliminate the government's investments and place the institution on a watch list.

After a grace period, if the institution has not made restitutions, the non-state church would be banned for at least a period of 5 years - depending on the severity of the crime.

AN: Individuals would be placed on a terrorist watch list, be admitted to a meditative shrine for rehabilitation, and said instrument of death and all instruments that helped facilitate the firearm's production would be disposed of. All firearms are by definition illegal.

For BN: Smuggling illegal and exotic meats or other animal-derived products (like sharkfins or ivory tusks) into your borders

All meats and exotic animal products are legal as long as they are declared at Customs.

Failure to declare or a false declaration results in confiscation of the products and a fine not exceeding $2,000 per item.
