Military music bores me, honestly. My favorite version of the US Military Anthem was done by a favorite band of mine...because they cover some weird things.

Blind Guardian - "And Then There Was Silence"

A fourteen-minute epic. Surely one of the greatest songs ever written, at least in terms of sheer grandeur.

Therion - "In The Desert of Set"

The final minute of this song: I never knew a keyboard/piano solo could be so epic in a metal song.
