Depends on situation, mostly small fines and confiscation of illicit gain if any other illegal practices are found, the fines may be partially/all waived if a license is applied and granted within 90 days, or when an appeal is accepted by the court.

Why would you do that for no reason oh well recreating such violence, eh depending on whether it was an act or genuine, a fine and/or national service (our version of community service. It differ because you are not punished when you do national service it is more of a forced honor and does not appears in records neither do fines). If it was really bad then some rehabilitation treatment or therapy. Like a week maybe unless the injuries were severe in which case possibly months and in case of death years but rehabilitation treatment is like the Finnish Correctional System so its pretty light. If they happen to be political dissidents then through the interdimensional rift they go though.

Enslaving a sentient machine? (Its fine here in Stella Nera)

Illegal Practice of Medicine will result in at least 25,000 Golcas fine and confiscating illicit gains, if there are injuries or death then will be incarcerated for no longer than 12 months + charged of murder/ manslaughter/ negetigence injuries, etc.

Considering there are no victim present and the special condition listed, the person would possibly pardon by authority.

Fines and possibly incarceration less than 1 year. Can additionally charging of Rape/Sexual Assault If any intimidation or coercion happened.
