"I have to admit that I am somewhat unfamiliar with the muslim religion. Such concerns are ancient history for us, and our forebears were largely an even mix of Christian and Zen Buddhist. That being said, I cannot help but note that this guy defies a goodly number of preconceptions held by groups closer to him. Marrying a woman outside the faith and allowing her to continue practicing that religion is a remarkably progressive policy under the circumstances. Ahh it's been awhile since I've heard word of this nation and its leader. My thoughts of him are positive, highly positive. He was one Hoji was tense at first towards but eventually grew to become great friends, Oni has spoken good words for the man.

I just hope he can see past the the beasthood that resides within this living soul of mine. And the fact that we are at war. Many think I'm a terrible person or a fool. But honestly would you let someone take everything that you worked for? No.

I look forward to our future interactions." -The first king

But either way the fact that he sees what's gone on within Lowblood grants him respect. And I can say I like him more than his banshee friend, she seems wise until she starts talking her words are like daggers." -The first king
