Master Musicians of Bukkake - "In the Light of the Sonoran"

I know of this one because of my dad, though I need to listen to them more. I've enjoyed what I've heard.

You say Justin Bieber, I say Pizza Kids and go order a slice 98% percent of people now listen to non-Pizza Kids music, if you are one of the 2% who listens to real music, call your buddy Mario and tell him to make you a nice pie.

I've always hated these kinds of comments on YouTube:)

I find it funny that it says "98% of people now listen to crap" typically in the posts, when about 90% of the people I see post on here DON'T listen to any of those you just mentioned. I guess it might just be the music group here on NationStates? I dunno. I rarely see people posting they are listening to Lady Gaga, Justin Bieber, T-Pain, Pitbull, or any of those on these threads.

Mercyful Fate - A Dangerous Meeting

CVT Temp wrote:

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
