Overseer Ernest's opinion on Kinzirû Anšar

He seems like a devious leader as evidenced by his policies, and his ideals on self-governance seem interesting. Of course, we would have different strategies for ruling a semi-autonomous robot populace as opposed to an organic one.

Hopefully in the future we are able to cooperate in the field of Hooshy Snack production, a lucrative business if there ever was one.

You're an AI, so I suppose I can expect a degree of disconnect from your origins, but you strike me as a habitual burner of bridges. Now, I'm not one to begrudge others a headlong rush to improvement, our entire culture is predicated on exactly that! I do have issues however with how much of your history you have simply discarded. If you sever your ties to your roots, you lose track of the history that led to your advent. You delve to greedily, I think. HA! Godulan Puppet #2, RPing as technologically advanced tribal society founded by mongols and vikings (and later with multiple other Asian and Native American cultures) motivated by an intrinsic devotion to the spirit of competition. They'll walk softly, talk softly, and make soothing noises as they stab you in the back and take your stuff... unless you're another Caleshan, whereupon they'll only stab you in the back figuratively!

Used NS stats: Population. That's it. Anything else not stated in the factbooks is not used.

Obey him, and if you are lucky, you will live a long and grey life. If not, his order will indirectly kill ya' for "the country." At very least he oppresses people equally, and provides for them. Still, his country is like Limbo, we wouldn't wanna live in, where there ain't no weed and freedom. Where there is only bureaucracy and tedium and Maoism. And this dude is rather boring dureaucrat, who just supports this mechanism. Still better than some of the regimes out there. Still ain't something we like. You are but a Tyrant disguising herself in the clothes of Democracy, your 'United States' is nothing but an ever so expansionist 'Imperialist Democracy' forcefully feeding such false and deceptive thoughts in the people that you enforce your beliefs in. Your 'Francoist Thought' is nothing more than a mere facade to implement your sadistic and ruthless ways upon the bastion and constitutions of your self-declared 'Democratic State'.

The United Confederation has one thing that does best than what the United States can ever hope to imagine: Implementing a world where pain and suffering is minimized to an extent in where people can live happily and merrily. Our politicians more Iron-Willed in keeping themselves away from the claws of Corruption and Deceit, our Soldiers defending countless families of either our allies or enemies as a way of showing our Humanity.

You, your 'United States' and your actions are nothing more than false delusions of grandeur. YOU! are the Satan that you claim i am supposed to be!"

Whatever guided the CPUSA to such heights must've been big, back here, the Feds are endlessly gutting them on the political stage, deemed to be too close to Moscow and everybody's "checking for Reds under their beds". But enough about my reality, let's see your presidency... hrm..

Your dedication to your cause is commendable, but the outcome of your presidency should've been spotted a mile away in the land of Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Material Happiness. Yeah, yeah, I know that Marx didn't specifically envision an abolishment of private property, but it's not like your opposition is known for reading much. Must've made their blood boil, huh? A leftist, a woman, telling them what to do. A perfect storm with the Recession too. Then the bombs and the bullets started flying, each side wanting to save their ideal America, the heart and soul of Enlightenment and Late-Modern idealisms of man. And you put the foot down with the Feds and rode that tiger for four years. What a mixed legacy! What counts as over-watch in a world where violence attains political goals? At least you're not Carter...oh wait, I'm not supposed to know about that...yet.

I think there should be respect, since she is older than me and has a peculiar kind of personality. "Well, from the looks of it, this Archon Nirin does seem to look like some advanced alien being, doesn't he? Now, in regards towards his backstory, one could fairly say that it's both inspiring and rather dark as well. From the personal degradation suffered by him to his, well, rather bloody military campaign, there is no doubt that his early life was rather eventful in general. Perhaps, there is more to be seen in the near future with his power now apparently consolidated, with myself hoping that it'd be less violent than before.."

That aside, reading it through, you are quite a problem-solver, I must say, and you did it all with little to no bloodshed. The lack of military expertise is something to think about because hey, I know you got some other sports stuff going on, but it's good to have some military skills, you know? Sure, a person can say they'd take a bullet for their beliefs, but would they put a bullet in someone else for their beliefs? No? If not, then can a person really call their conviction true? Violence is one of the highest forms of passion and when done righteously it's beauty can be so overwhelming one can't help but break into tears at such a powerful display of honest emotion. It is good for you that you didn't need to use the violence you have such disdain for, but sometimes violence is the only course of action, when shit hits the fan, it's the C-Students with guns and the willingness to use them that end up on top, not the top-of-their-class moralizing intellectuals who piss themselves at the idea of physical confrontation."

"This barbarian is an alright leader, I guess. You've got political stances which I can't say I disagree with along with a big helping of savage political babble-terms that don't translate to us Shurayu, as is typical for these foreign biographies. You're passionate and seem to be willing to stand for your convictions, though I really can't get behind your pacifism. Sure, a person can say they'd take a bullet for their beliefs, but would they put a bullet in someone else for their beliefs? No? If not, then can a person really call their conviction true? Violence is one of the highest forms of passion and when done righteously it's beauty can be so overwhelming one can't help but break into tears at such a powerful display of honest emotion. It is good for you that you didn't need to use the violence you have such disdain for, but sometimes violence is the only course of action, when shit hits the fan, it's the C-Students with guns and the willingness to use them that end up on top, not the top-of-their-class moralizing intellectuals who piss themselves at the idea of physical confrontation."

"I like this man, Ansar... I mean he would be better if he was born a woman because I dislike all men but I digress. I mean like growing up poor, having a shitty dad, and selling cigarettes are like all vogue you know. I especially like how you beat up your teacher to a bloody pulp. Bitch had it coming, I would have whooped his ass myself. Anyway, you have the makings of a real girlboss unlike some here. A real bad bitch would know that you need to hang your worst enemies and gaslight people into lynching your enemies as well because that's how you stay at the top. I don't care what any bitch says, that's real black air force energy and it's kinda hot. Also, kinda cute you found the soulmate that you saved but then he saved you back, that's real love xoxo."
