Monkey 3515 was a member of the firing squad. Monkey 3514 was also a member of the firing squad, however he didn't know how to handle his rifle and pointed it in the wrong direction.

Monkey 3514 was court-martialed and dishonorably discharged for friendly fire. Over the course of the next few months, he grew depressed and eventually succumbed to drug abuse.

Monkey 3512 won an auction for a set of vintage 1700s pewter silver- and cookware.

They found him suspended above a telephone line six months later.

Monkey 3511 was confused about 3512's death, and what 1700s silverware had to do with telephone wires. In his confusion he drove his car in front of a bullet train.
