Obituary - Infected

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

The time signature on that song is so weird (17/8 and 5/8).

I mean, I've seen other weird signatures (26 IS DANCIER THAN 4). I have a song I've been working on that's partially in 27/8

This Town Needs Guns - 26 Is Dancier Than 4

I think Bjork has a lot of weird time signatures. I'm not exactly an expert on figuring out time signatures, like, at all....This album has some pretty insane drum N bass beats as well that kinda throw off my mind trying to follow them.

I believe the sounds in the background of this song is a Tesla Coil

I heard about Biophilia's weird meters. Ah yes, here:

“

Björk also breaks the typical 4/4 time signature structure for many of the songs on Biophilia. For example, "Solstice" features 7/4 and 6/4 time signatures; "Hollow", "Crystalline" and "Moon", all feature a 17/8 time signature; "Mutual Core", 5/4 time signature and "Virus", 3/4 time signature. In addition, "Dark Matter" is in free-time, it lacks a regular pulse.

I absolutely love fooling around with meter. You should see me in school as I often will just make my own rhythms by beating my desk with my hands or something. I'm a horrible drummer though. Uh, last time I posted a demo of me on the other thread that was a ditty I made with a little meter experimentation. I'll see if I can find it.

Geez. I mean, I don't even know what any of those really mean, but geez anyway.

You'd think I'd be more knowledgeable in technical aspects of music, considering my dad grew up playing guitar and has a ton of instruments and I even started to learn guitar, but whatever.

Eh, you don't really need to know music theory to compose or play music.

Does it help? OHHHH YES IT DOES

Is it necessary? Hell no.

My acoustic math ditty. Shifts between 4/4, 7/8, 3/4, and 5/4 throughout.

Can I play music even slightly? Not really.

Is that important for playing music? Probably ☐

I should totally use this "vocaroo" thing with my music and show you how totally awesome I am...."Hey, here is me mindlessly strumming an acoustic guitar!"

And nice:)

This one, Mutual Core, Nattura, and Crystalline are probably my favorites. So pretty much the 2nd half of the album is my favorite.

I'm fooling around on my acoustic right now. Just doing that leads to a lot of good ideas flowing through my brain. Maybe I'll record what comes out of this.
