Jeff the Broterhood - Hey Friend

Your nation is like a son. What it does right is your merit, as well as what it does wrong is your fault. When you praise it, be lucid and avoid exaggeration. Praising it too much can make it indolent. On the other hand, when you criticize it, be harsh, but do not ridicule it. Do your best to improve it, not through derision or disdain, but through good examples and dedication.

Chant - By Dolores' Sword

“ CVT Temp wrote:

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

"Undisclosed Desires"--Muse

I really don't see why most Muse fans hate this song and the album it's off of. I think it's really catchy, well-written, well-produced, and fairly unique in it's own right, at least by today's pop standards.

21 EP's!

This might be a bit too dancy for me after a while, though.

The Black Dog-Broken Mind

This band has 200+ songs, and if they're all dance music, I'm going to probably get bored of them pretty fast.

The second closing song from Valvrave the Liberator. It sounds really cool, but they played it in the last battle in the series finale and thinking of the ending of that anime makes me sad.

The Black Dog-You're Only SQL (BCN Mix)

At least this is somewhat creative dance music. But definitely not my favorite stuff I've listened to today.
