Roughly 3 million people in New Wolvers are werewolves, with the ability to shape shift at their own leisure. Neat-o!

"Somewhere far away, in the distant dunes that rest silhouetted far beyond the ethereal horizons of good and evil, Convallaria has emerged as a technocratic dreamscape of shimmering ambitions and passionate indulgence. A pioneering realm of unbridled industrial sprawl and paranoid black-market underworlds centered around three things: champagne, wealth, and vigorous McCarthyism..."

They are a nomadic people teetering between the Bronze and Iron Ages and Their Faith is centered around Sky Worship.

What if Eastern Rome survived?

Basic Overview: Basically an althist where Basil II actually has decent successors who build on his achievements, resulting in a STRONK ERE that beats back the Sejuks and eventually does it's own reconquesta in the Middle East. Also, The Crusades never happened, the Viking conquest of Britain succeeded, Genghis Khan died as a young prisoner in a tribal camp, Alexander Nevsky united Russia, and the HRE became a centralized state and destroyed France and the Normans.

In Ghesite beliefs, the clouds are considered incorporeal spirits that exist solely as messengers. The winds are messengers as well, but are considered much stronger - as unlike clouds, the wind can be felt by humans - and are believed to have traits and characters of their own, as well as a unique role within the world. The West Wind, for example, comes down from the mountains and is considered cold and biting, yet reasoned, due to the fact that it is so predictable.

It's worth noting that the bloody age of Hakai had actually brought us something prized and desired! What's it, you might ask? WMDs? No. Poisons? Think again! Pulse lasers? Leave that box already! At the times of violent free-for-all, medical technologies were crucial to keep everyone ready to fight, yet they've found a more honorable, peaceful application. As of 3020, cancer, Alzheimer's disease and heart attacks are pretty much unheard of, and surgery has become more efficient and less intrusive, with recovery time minimized to mere weeks. Gender confirmation surgeries had reached such a perfect point that it's practically impossible to discriminate transgender people from the rest.

Ages ago, before I went mad from catgirls, LP was a more basic nation and she was a MILF spy. A lot of people became enamoured with that even when the character became dead to me. So I had to rewrite a lot of things to justify her role while bringing back some old ideas.

I learned that neutrality is literally written into their constitution. Switzerland type beat.

New Wolves encourages unity, rejects offensive war, and pledges to stay neutral to any kind of armed conflict.

The national army, the Liberation Wolves, solely exists to protect the Federal Republic from invasions by other nations.

Allied nations' armies are allowed to cross and station in the state under permission.

The nation is protected inside by the Federal Carbineer Troopers, in which they must and can act as peacekeepers in the limits of the law.

The states' police forces are to be considered a civic duty.

Paragraph I. The Army, after the constitutional changes following a referendum in date August 10th, 2018, can be used to help other countries in need and allies. In no way, however, New Wolvers is allowed to start a war. The principles of neutrality still apply

One of the major reasons why the Nazis lost in this AU is due to LP's strategic bombing campaign of Germany, which crippled the horde's production capabilities and granted the Allies advantageous air superiority.
