It is based on the actual Netherlands, but in a more Christian-Conservative and a bit Liberal way. The laws are not actual, but is rather based on the actual Netherlands with a change in it on how I see it, everything is based on how I see things in my own perspective and how I believe it should be different

After the capital of Vlaandia fell to war following Pepin I's defeat, King Eutharic settled in a land that would grow to become the modern capital of Altenstadt.

Coryan: One of the stereotypes affecting Coryans is that they're seen as cowards just for preferring peace.

The leader's religious views are a complete and utter enigma, as he has refused to share anything about them.

We do not use NS Stats, policies, or otherwise. Please only judge us by what is in our factbooks.

An alternate history version of China in which the alliance between the Kuomintang and the Communist Party never broke down, eventually resulting in a federalized, democratic China. Though one of the world's strongest economies and an emerging superpower, China continues to suffer from high rates of income inequality, an overreaching and sometimes corrupt government, and cultural issues that continue to persist despite the efforts of many reformers over the decades. Most factbooks are still an active WIP.

The general gist is a unified Democratic China, only possible after the Communist's made concessions. Generally, I like the idea, but I'm nowhere near educated enough on Asiatic history to see if it's one of my favourite semi-realistic nations. As the factbooks describe it, certainly seems plausible. Just another reality better then ours, I suppose.
