"Dear Diary: Today I am suppose to give my opinion on the Authorities from San Francisco; while the Authorities do their job competently enough being the Authorities on the streets of San Francisco, I am doubtful that them being the only pair they will be unable to dispatch the Un-Authorities effectively and in a short time. Should I return to my original world I want to give a hundred Authorities from the Imperium over to them so they can either arrest or kill the Un-Authorities with relative ease. However I doubt I will return to my world to fulfill a promise I am likely not to keep."

"A king, who does it right. He fulfills his role of a responsible monarch, who uses his power to serve his nation and people. The fact, that he passed his hard and deadly rite of passage, where the past kings judge his worth, itself speaks highly of him. He has my deep respect, that's for sure! I know, that he also hones his battle skill... Me too. I prefer a good club, combat knife and a variety of guns myself, I deem spear to be too inconvenient in CQB, especially in confined places such as elevators. Maybe one day, when we meet as two fellow warriors, we can learn about combat theory and tactics from eachother. "-Shawn Bjornson

"He can say about harshness all he wants, but I will just listen to metal and headbang, while he gives this sort of speech. One's own subjects are not enemies but allies, and thus don't even deserve being treated badly! He won't understand, and will continue his regime. That's how revolutions appear. Trust me, one day people get pissed off with that SJW witch hunt and give him a free ride on an awesome attraction called guillotine. And yes, while in Skyhooked, we will mock his government however we want, not fearin' the crucifixion, we will treat our people softly and allow atheism, and if he has something to say, about that, he can say this to our guns and bullets!"-Shawn Bjornson

"When I think of these two, I think of them like how I see cardboard boxes. A cardboard box is bland and only mildly interesting when there is something good inside; these two are empty and devoid of colourful personality. It's like someone just wrote random, explicit stuff inside the empty cardboard box and expect a reaction by people to it. These two are one the same level to Mercer and Ishmael, scientists but unable to exert colourful personalities. I'm a laconic dick but that's a personality compared to people making posh, elaborate sentences."

It's 1452, and there's a massive empire spanning Central America, from Guatemala to Panama, and it's filled with a flourishing culture who worship the Pillar Men and happily partake in cannibalism. Oh, and they have a military that is sort of like extremely tactical Viking-Mayans that make the most of their Mesoamerican technology.

So the Swedish and Prussians attacked the Polish populace... is that regime still around, and even then, are you willing to engage in talks with them? It seems your thought is unfortunately not as diplomatic and reasonable as I had hope, or else your grudge against those Swedish and Prussians, whoever they may be, would have faded long ago. Infact, this grudge of yours and mannerisms makes me question if you truly are fit to rule, lest also question your honor. I hope the rest of the white man is not like this; your society seems advanced, but when you look under the surface, you see the most interesting, beautiful and disgusting things.
