I remember my mom playing this all the time when I was little.
Oh god...I don't remember this song being as sad as it is.

Math rock has weird song titles...

Post-rock has like all these serious titles (You Lost the Starlight in Your Eyes, You May Emerge From This More Dead Than Alive, Sinking Inside Yourself, Always Wishing You Were Somewhere Else, This Kind of Life Keeps Breaking Your Heart, and this is me just quoting a few examples from one band) while math rock has some of the most ridiculous ever (MyBloodyJesusExplorerOnFire, Let's Do "Do the What Now?" Now, Pie To the Death-Faced Indie Kid, When the Catholic Girls Go Camping, the Nicotine Vampires Rule Supreme, Hello Great Architect of the Universe, to name a few).

Even "math" rock is sort of a weird genre title. ☐

Gorillaz-19-2000

Haven't heard this song in a LONG time, and last time I heard it I hadn't heard it in a LONG time, either.

Reminds me of the video and game (Loved the video as a kid).

The other one I've heard on the radio more recently.

Now this is hip-hop/trip hop/alternative rock I've liked forever.

These two songs, anyway...not sure I know much beyond this.
