I have recently located the sources for a few video game tracks that I just about remembered from childhood. This morning, I rendered the tracks to FLAC and ALAC via FooBar2000 on an XP virtual machine. The tracks were:

1. Main Menu theme from TOCA Touring Car Championship
2. Crash Cove level theme from Crash Team Racing
3. Options theme from Wave Race 64
4. Title theme from Epic Pinball
5. Shelia's Alp and Sgt. Byrd level themes from Spyro: Year of the Dragon

I have to give credit to FooBar2000 for allowing me to loop the short tracks (The title theme from Epic Pinball is only 1 minute and 1 second), and for also allowing me to place the fade-out after the last iteration (and not before the end of the last iteration). I will deal with the soundtracks from The Sims (1) later.
