Stillborn - State of Disconnection

*Separated from yourself you walk a lonely path
You feel something's missing deep inside
Knowing that they'll never let you see the other half
Reality's beginning to subside*

Tragically Hip - 38 Years Old

*See my sister got raped so a man got killed
Local boy went to prison, man's buried on the hill
Folks went back to normal when they closed the case
They still stare at their shoes when they pass our place*

*My mother cried, "The horror has finally ceased"
He whispered, "Yeah, for the time being at least"
And over her shoulder on the squad car megaphone
Said, "Let's go, Michael, son, we're taking you home"*

*Same pattern on the table, same clock on the wall
Been one seat empty eighteen years in all
Freezing slow time, away from the world*
