Nemesis definitely fits into generic song name category.

Almost any song with the word "Love" in it is generic, too. Name-wise, though oftentimes song-wise, too.

Saxon Shore-A Greatness at the Cost of Goodness

This song makes me think of humans in general, and our ever growing love for power and expansion into more and more territory, tar sands, oil drilling, and so on for the sake of being "Great" but destroying the world and ourselves in the process.

Cro- Du und Ich

"Releases by individual members

Three-inch CDEPs were recorded by each band member and issued as a limited four-part series, all released in 2006 on Temporary Residence.

Part one: The Gunslinger EP (Stefan Mach)

Part two: My Mom Caught Me in My Room Beat Boxin' (James Templeton)

Part three: He's Home with Bones That Grow the Way They're Supposed To (Jeff Wilson)

Part four: The Imaginary EP (Josh Smith)

Huh, that's kinda neat.

By the End of Tonight-What Must and Shall Be

Spotify doesn't appear to have any of their full length albums...Just the 4 albums (Or more like EP's based on length) done by individual band members and an EP.

Wait, I just found one of the albums.
