"Money is everything, whether you like it or not"
Typical corporate state motto.

[ ] HOUSE OF KOO

The House of Namyang Koo was a noble Korean clan originating from modern-day Hwaseong, Korea that owned land around the capital region of Hanseong. It was divided into the junior Suwon and elder Namyang branches of the family. Loyal servants to the King of Joseon, relatives, and descendants of the House of Koo served as civil servants and military officials in the Joseon bureaucracy from the mid-1500s up until 1910, when the Japanese annexed Korea, forcing the most influential members of the clan to flee to other countries, such as Thailand, Central Europe, and China.
