Fun bothers me for some reason. Me and my dad both think a lot of their music we've heard sounds way too much like it is straight out of a Disney movie.

A lot of the ambient artists I have left have a ton of albums and songs. Brian Eno having 139 on my playlist, for example. Just listening to the album I mostly went through already but listening to more thoroughly.

Then there's Philip Glass and Klaus Schulze which have way too much for me to want to go through right now, as well.

But I shall continue on my ambient/minimalistic/drone/other stuff spree for now.
